Milind Nayak -

Born in Udupi, 1954, started painting at age fourteen and was mentored by the Late G S Shenoy. He was a founder member of South Kanara Art Council.

After the first Kala Mela, Milind moved to New Delhi. He pursued other visual interests like photography, and commercial printing. He also was on the Editorial team of the house magazine for the bank he worked for. He returned to painting after a gap of sixteen years in 1999 and has been a practicing artist since then. Milind has worked in several mediums and exhibited in over thirty five solo shows since then. His works are in important public and private collections in India and many other countries.
