

Make Your Own Montage

at the National Gallery of Modern Art!

FREE ACTIVITY

Inspired by an exhibition,
'M. V. Dhurandhar:
The Romantic Realist'

Image: Scene of Hindu Marriage Ceremony by MV Dhurandhar, watercolour on paper, courtesy Directorate of Archaeology & Museums, Govt of Maharashtra

Take a guided tour of the NGMA's new exhibition 'M.V. Dhurandhar: The Romantic Realist'. Observe the ways in which Dhurandhar has depicted people, often portraying interesting narratives in his paintings through the use of multiple characters.

Be inspired to create your own collage or montage of images that would resemble a Dhurandhar painting! You may use newspaper or magazine cutouts to create your montages.

22 September 2018
11.30 am to 1.30 pm

Venue: National Gallery of Modern Art,
MG Road, Fort, Mumbai,
Maharashtra 400032

Age Group: Suitable for children over 8 years of age. Open to adults and family groups.
Charges: Entry charges applicable. All materials will be provided free of cost.

Register: education@bdlmuseum.org

Limited seating on a first come, first serve basis.

